BLINDED BY DYNAMITE.

Premature Explosion Causes Injuries to Four Japs.

Three Japanese laborers arrived in town by an early train this morning from Waianae. Two of the men presented a terrible sight, their faces being a mass of torn flesh. They were met at the depot by a police officer, who had them driven in a hack to the Queen's Hospital. The two men are not expected to live.

The Japs were injured yesterday by a premature explosion of giant powder. The men were engaged blasting on the line of the Waianae extension. Three charges had been put in, and every time a charge exploded it went straight in the air. A fourth charge was inserted and to make sure that it would do the work intended two of the Japs began hammering it down with a crowbar. The dynamite exploded and the men who were working with the crowbar were struck on the face and thrown quite a distance away. The two other Japs were knocked down by the shock, escaping with bruises about the body. The first two were blinded and had to be carried home. A carriage was procured later and the men were taken to the train and brought to town this morning.

JOHN AND HIS TRICKS.

A Chinaman Tries to Pass Another Man's Tax Receipt as His Own.

A Chinaman giving the name of Lee Peng was committed for trial by District Magistrate Perry this morning, for trying to pass another man's tax receipt as his own. Lee Peng was arrested about a month ago for not paying his personal taxes. Soon after friends came to his assistance and "ponied up." The man was released. A few days later Peng called at the Tax Office and wanted Mr. Shaw to refund his money. He also had an old tax receipt made out in Ching Ying's name. The man claimed that Ching Ying was his right name. Mr. Shaw refused to refund the money until after he had made due investigation. Two of the Chinese clerks of the Tax Office were detailed to find Ching Ying but were unable to locate him. They found, however, where the real Ching Ying was employed. Peng was endeavoring to pass another man's receipt as his own.

W. A. Kinney, counsel for defendant, excepted to the ruling denying to discharge defendant and noted an appeal to the Supreme Court on points of law.

Wasn't in the Empire.

EDITOR BULLETIN:

You stated in last evening's issue of the BULLETIN, that the woman Piki was struck on the head with a bottle by Enalia in the Empire saloon. The statement is false. The woman above mentioned was not in the Empire, and to my knowledge was not on the premises.

LADIES' COLUMN.

Did you notice that we made no mention of the arrival of the goods purchased for us by MRS. FREIMANN while on her recent trip East?

There was a reason for it and a simple enough one too, if you will only stop to think.

You knew and everybody else knew that we were going to bring something into this market that was new and catchy. There was no need to advertise it, the judicious buyers of Honolulu watch the arrival of our goods, they know that if there is anything nice to be had we get it, in fact that we set the pace on New Goods, Stylish Goods, at prices that are just right.

This week, in addition to the regular run, we are going to make a hole in our pile of
